

William E. Henry
Director

William E. Henry is a Bronx, New York native with over forty (40) years experience as an IT / telecommunications professional and senior industry consultant. His career highlights include working for fourteen (14) years at AT&T in positions of increasing responsibility within the engineering, operations, sales and marketing departments. As director of corporate telecommunications at Bristol-Myers Squibb Company, he was responsible for formulating strategies for all of the company's voice, data, video and image applications, systems, services and networking capabilities in 135 countries. Mr. Henry also held the position of vice president of business development and marketing at DCC Systems.

Prior to joining BEST Talent Management Strategies, Mr. Henry was employed by New York City Health + Hospitals as telecommunications director for Jacobi Medical Center, a regional level 1 trauma center and North Central Bronx Hospital.

A former military officer, Mr. Henry was educated at New York University and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He has been a visiting assistant professor at Pratt Institute's Graduate School of Architecture since 1995. Mr. Henry joined the adjunct faculty at Bronx Community College of the City University of New York in 2009 and lectured first year students on topics related to career development until 2015. He was an instructor in the college's Department of Physics and Technology as well.

Mr. Henry's fervor for being socially conscious can be traced back to his days as a student activist. In addition to being chair of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Center New York Support Group, he is a long time Trustee for the Catholic Big Sisters and Big Brothers of New York. He has been a lector at the Church of St. Charles Borromeo / Resurrection Chapel in Harlem, New York for many years and is a member of its New Media Ministry.

The father of two (2) daughters, Mr. Henry lives in New Rochelle, New York with his wife and younger daughter.
